

Renaissance Symphony Orchestra and Vista Orchestra for Youth

We are a community based family orchestra program, located in north San Diego County, California, and organized to provide opportunities for musicians of all ages to actively engage in making music in a performance setting. We provide free music instruction, sheet music, materials, and the loan of instruments for your student.

Announcing our new rehearsal and practice space!

Renaissance Institute of Music has found a wonderful new rehearsal home for our Orchestra Programs. Vista Orchestra for Youth, Renaissance Symphony Orchestra and Renaissance Chamber Orchestra have moved to Studio One at the California Center for the Arts, Escondido, 340 North Escondido Blvd., CA 92025

ONE IMPORTANT PARENT MEETING FOR ALL FAMILIES DON'T MISS IT!

12:00 NOON, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2017

Studio One, California Center for the Arts, Escondido

340 North Escondido Blvd., CA 92025

Our new season will begin with a very important meeting at Studio One, at 12:00 noon, on Saturday, October 7, 2017. Please come to register your musicians in the program, sign up for classes and coaching, meet our teaching staff, and learn about our program, including the new moderate facility fee that will cover the cost of renting Studio One. You will have the opportunity to put your children's names on the Waiting List for the beginning strings class that will start in late January.
